

Lesson Plan of Geography (B23-GEO-201)

Name of the Teacher: Raj Kumar

Class: B. A. I

Session: January-June 2024

External Marks: 50

Subject: Human Geography

Semester -II

Internal Marks: 20

Course Objectives: To introduce with the students the basic concepts of human geography primarily in terms of man-nature relationships

Course Outcomes: After completing this course the students will be able to understand the various concepts of human geography. They will be able to understand the concept of race and religion. They will be able to differentiate between different world economic systems.

Month	Dates	Topic to be covered	Assignments/Tests/others
February	1-10	Definition, Nature and scope of Human Geography,
	12-17	Approaches to the study of Human Geography, relation with other social sciences
	19-29	Human race: meaning, classification and their global diffusion and distribution	Quiz Competition
March	1-9	Religion: meaning and classification,
	11-16	Evolution and development of major religions of the world	Assignment I
	18-22	Organization of space: central place theory
	23-31	Holi Break
April	1-6	Agricultural location model and industrial location model	Assignment II
	8-13	Distribution, density and growth of population: determinants and world pattern	Test
	15-20	World pattern of development: economy
	22-30	World pattern of development: polity	Earth Day
May	1-11	World pattern of migration: streams
	13-18	World pattern of migration: determinants
	20-25	Revision
	27-31	Revision

Teacher's Signature