DO No.1-74/2016 (ARC)

31 आषाढ़ 1947 / 22nd July, 2025

आदरणीय महोदया/महोदय,

To prevent ragging, the UGC has framed regulations on curbing the menace of ragging in higher educational institutions. These regulations are mandatory, and all institutions are required to take necessary steps for its implementation in toto, including the monitoring mechanism as per provisions in the above regulations and ensure its strict compliance. The UGC has also taken several proactive steps, including the effective launch of media campaigns and awareness activities for preventing ragging. Videos on anti-ragging are also uploaded on UGC website for use by higher education institutions.

As a step further, UGC has decided in 2023 that Anti Ragging Day would be observed on 12th August, followed by Anti Ragging Week from 12th August to 18th August. This initiative is one of the tools of the Commission to increase awareness against ragging. The Higher Educational Institutions are desired to adopt the following activities during the celebration of Anti-Ragging Day/Week:

- i. Inaugural ceremonies to mark the launch of Anti-Ragging Day/Week. ✓
- ii. Competitions such as slogan writing, essay writing, poster making, logo designing, street play performances, photography, quiz competitions, debates, and more on Anti-Ragging themes. Distribute certificates and prizes to encourage the participants to actively promote Anti-Ragging measures. ✓
- iii. Social media campaigns, activity posts, and video messages by the head of the institutions to disseminate Anti-Ragging messages on the institution's website and social media platforms. ✓
- iv. Awareness activities like workshops, seminars, interactive sessions, and other creative avenues such as setting up selfie corners on campus to spread the key messages. ✓
- v. Encourage your students to participate in the National Contest 2025 on Digital Posters, Reels, and Short Videos. Detailed information regarding the National Contest, its categories, deadlines, eligibility, selection, and awards is available at www.antiragging.in. ✓
- vi. Anti-Ragging short films/ TVCs may be screened for students and faculty (available on UGC website www.antiragging.in). ✓
- vii. Forward this advisory to all the colleges within your jurisdiction to celebrate Anti-Ragging Day/Week.

Orientation Program

The college observed Anti-Ragging Week with great enthusiasm and. On August 12, 2025, an Orientation Programme was conducted by Anti Ragging committee under the leadership of Dr. Kashmir Singh, the programme was organized in strict adherence to the guidelines mentioned in the UGC letter no. DO No. 1-74/2016 (ARC) dated July 22, 2025 on anti-ragging measures marking the celebration of Anti-Ragging Day. During this programme, students were sensitized about the harmful effects of ragging and the importance of maintaining a safe and respectful campus environment. All the Committee Members were present to ensure the smooth execution of the event.

Dr. Nandini addressed the gathering and emphasized the importance of creating a safe and healthy environment within the college campus. She highlighted that such an environment not only ensures security but also plays a vital role in supporting the mental health and overall well-being of the students.

As a significant part of the celebration, the girl students, took an Oath pledging not to indulge in any form of ragging. All the Committee Members contributed in this event to make it a grand success.
